A Reminder about Reimbursable Medical/Dental and HRA Expenses

1. Reimbursement is based upon the incurred date not the paid date. You “incur” an expense on the date that the service is received, not when you pay the bill. You must provide proof that the expenses were incurred by attaching a statement from the provider indicating the date of service, a description of the service, and the charge for the service. Examples of acceptable documentation for healthcare expenses are an itemized statement or an insurance company’s explanation of benefits (EOB). Do Not send canceled checks, copies of checks, credit card receipts or statements, a predetermination or estimate of insurance benefits form, balance-forward statements, or balance due statements of expense. Keep a copy of the documentation for your records. There is a fee for retrieval and copying of previously processed claims. For prescription medications you must include a copy of the pharmacy drug label or pharmacy statement showing the name of prescription(s). Effective 1/1/2011, all over-the-counter medications require a physician’s prescription to be eligible for reimbursement,(excluding diabetic insulin).
2. You can use the Medical/Dental Expense Account (MDEA) and the HRA for the reimbursement of any eligible expenses not paid in full by another plan or for any eligible expenses not covered by your health plan. To be eligible, expenses must meet the following requirements:
  - They must be directed or prescribed by a physician or dentist
  - They must be directly related to a physical or mental condition
  - Expenses must be incurred on or after the effective date of the plan and after the date you become a plan participant
  - Expenses must be incurred by you, your spouse, or other person who qualifies as an eligible dependent for federal income tax purposes
3. Examples of eligible expenses:
  - Deductibles (the part of covered expenses you pay before your health plan pays any benefits)
  - Co-insurance amounts (the percent of covered expenses you must pay, if any, after the deductible requirement has been met)
  - Dental expenses such as exams or other services
  - Vision care expenses such as eye examinations and eye glasses
  - Hearing care expenses, including hearing examinations and hearing aids
  - Routine physical examinations
  - Prescription and over-the-counter medicines, (with a doctor’s prescription,) to alleviate or treat a medical condition
  - Co-pays

A Reminder about Reimbursable Dependent Care (Daycare) Expenses

1. For your dependent care expenses to qualify for reimbursement from the Dependent Care (Daycare) Expense Account, (DCEA) the following requirements must be met:
  - Your spouse must be working for pay, attending school, or seeking employment while you are at work.
  - Children receiving daycare must be under the age of 13 at the time the daycare services are provided, or the person receiving care must be physically or mentally incapable of self-care.
  - The provider cannot be listed as a dependent on your federal income tax form, and if the provider is your own child, your child must be at least 19 years of age.
  - An unlicensed care provider must care for no more than six children (excluding full-time residents of the daycare facility).
  - Expenses must be incurred on or after the effective date of the plan and after the date you become a plan participant.
  - Under federal law, when you file your income tax return with the IRS you must also report the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of all providers of dependent care services whose fees were reimbursed to you under this plan during the year. Failure to do so constitutes tax fraud unless the provider of these services is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization. If you have questions on how this might affect your tax filing, refer your question to your tax advisor.
2. If the amount of daycare expense reimbursement you receive for a calendar year exceeds your earnings and you are single or the earnings of the lower-paid spouse if you are married, the difference must be reported as taxable income for the year. There are special rules if your spouse is a full-time student or is physically or mentally incapable of self-care. Again, see your tax advisor if you have questions.
3. You must provide proof that the expenses were incurred either by having the provider complete the Provider Signature section of the form or by attaching an itemized statement from the provider. Indicate the actual amount incurred, not the amount you calculate to be in the account.
4. If there is not enough money in your DCEA to cover in full the eligible expenses listed on this form, you will be reimbursed up to the amount of your account balance and the excess expenses will be carried forward and paid from the contributions you make in subsequent periods. You do not have to re-submit the charges.
